

ACADEMIC- STUDENT APPLICATION

Program and Applying Overview

The Governor's School for Excellence is a week-long program sponsored by the Office of the Governor of Delaware that provides traditional and non-traditional college-level education, leadership training, and social activities for academically and artistically gifted rising eleventh graders. Students nominated for Governor's School must reside in the state of Delaware and attend a selected Delaware High School. The program is held at the University of Delaware, Newark Campus on Sunday, July 14 -Friday, July 19, 2024.

PLEASE NOTE:

The University of Delaware's COVID-19 policies for in-person learning will apply to Governor's School. As summer policies have not yet been issued by UD, we will provide updated guidance for Governor's School participants as soon as it is available. For additional information about UD's COVID-19 policies, see <https://www.udel.edu/home/coronavirus/>.

How to apply:

Instructions for the applying student

1. Complete the 'Student Information' page (page 2).
2. Ask two teachers for a letter of recommendation using the forms provided below (pages 3-6). Teachers must have taught you within the past twelve months.
3. Send your completed 'Student Information' page, the two completed letters of recommendation, and the Achievement Test and Academic Rank page below to your guidance counselor. Your guidance counselor will complete that page.
4. Optional 500-word essay, if required by your school.

Instructions to the teachers making the recommendation

1. Complete the letter of recommendation using the letter below sent to you from the applying student (pages 3-6).
2. Send the letter of recommendation back to the applying student.

Instructions to the Guidance Counselors

1. Receive the 'Student Information' page, two letters of recommendation, and the 'Achievement test and academic rank' page from the applying student(s).
2. Complete the Achievement Test and Academic Rank page (page 7).
3. If you are not the designee to make the final decision, please forward the student's completed Academic Application package to that person, including the Student Information page, the two letters of recommendation, and the Achievement Test and Academic Rank page.
