VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS- STUDENT APPLICATION

Program and Selection Process Overview

The Governor's School for Excellence is a week-long program sponsored by the Office of the Governor of Delaware that provides traditional and non-traditional college-level education, leadership training, and social activities for academically and artistically gifted rising eleventh graders. Students nominated for Governor's School must reside in the state of Delaware and attend a selected Delaware High School. The program is held at the University of Delaware, Newark Campus on Sunday, July 13 - Friday, July 18, 2025.

PLEASE NOTE:

Nominees are generally selected by arts-related teachers, guidance counselors, or the principal based on their talent and previous experience. Nominations are only accepted when accompanied by the Principal Nomination Form. Do not send in an application form independently.

The selection process for the Governor's School is highly competitive. There is space for only one accepted student for every 4-6 students who are nominated by their school. Acceptance to any of the arts programs is based on performance criteria, and judges include University faculty members, instructors, and outside experts in the arts. Each school may nominate up to 8 students for Music, 2 students for Dance, and 2 students for Visual Arts.

There are 7 Visual and Performing Arts programs offered. You may only apply for ONE (1).

Choral Music Instructions

Overview

Students selected for the Choral Music program will have an opportunity to rehearse and perform several kinds of music. They will work with professional vocal artists and instructors to improve their technique and knowledge, both as solo performers and as participants in a chamber vocal ensemble.

Applying Instructions

Students must submit to the principal/designee a resume letter to include any vocal training, experience as a performer (solo, group or chorus), and any music honors or awards received.

Audition: March/April 2025

For the Audition:

1. You will be asked to sing a solo vocal selection of your choice. We would prefer that the selection be chosen from the classical vocal art song repertoire. However, a popular song or Broadway musical selection is acceptable.
2. You will be asked to sight sing and perform vocal exercises at the discretion of the vocal judge.
3. Audition requirements are subject to change by the instructor.
4. Final student selection will be made by the Governor's School faculty and instructors who teach in the program. Selection is solely based on performance criteria, so it is important to prepare thoroughly for the audition.

Notification of acceptance: May 2025

Brass-Instrumental Music Instructions

Students who play brass instruments with proficiency are invited to apply and audition. Final student selection will be made by University faculty and instructors who are associated with Governor's School. Selection is based on performance criteria at the audition.

How to Apply:

Students must submit to the principal/designee a resume letter to include any instrumental training, experience as a performer (solo or group), and any music honors or awards received.

Audition: March/April 2025
